OBITUARY

Agnes Bernadette Sinclair was born in Fagatogo, American Samoa, on January 28, 1946. In 1962, she relocated to Los Angeles, California, marking the beginning of a new chapter. In the spring of 1963, she entered the bonds of matrimony, initiating the establishment of a cherished family.

During the early 1970s, Agnes and her family were honored to contribute to the inaugural Samoan Seventh Day Adventist Church in Compton, CA. Shortly after, in the late 1970s, she attained her Associates degree in Accounting from Riverside Community College, a testament to her commitment to personal and intellectual growth.

For three decades, Agnes dedicated herself to a career with Carl's Jr Company, showcasing unwavering dedication and professionalism. Beyond her professional pursuits, she exemplified the qualities of a loving and devoted wife and mother. Active involvement in the lives of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren was a testament to her commitment to family.

An extraordinary culinary talent, Agnes's prowess in the kitchen as both a cook and baker enriched the lives of those around her. Furthermore, she selflessly volunteered at the James A. Venable Community Center for over a decade, making a positive impact on the Cabazon community.

Agnes passed away at the Loma Linda Seventh Day Adventist Medical Center on February 19, 2024, surrounded by her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Her profound love and influence extended beyond familial circles, resonating with friends and the Samoan Adventist Community of Southern California.

Her memory will be eternally cherished by all those who were fortunate enough to know and love her.
